

Phnom Penh, March 13 1956

My dearest Prasih

Supposing you received my letter from Tokyo, this is to let you know that I am arriving in Bangkok by airplane from Siem Reap on Monday, March 19. at 12:30.

As I wrote you I will stay with old German friends, Dr. and Mrs. Jacobsohn. I am sure they will come to fetch me at the Airport. So if it would be much trouble for you to come to the Airport just to see me for a moment, you may as well call by phone at the Jacobsohn home (31813) some time later, by 2 o'clock or so, to make an appointment with me when and where to meet.

Looking forward to seeing you and Mrs. Silapabanleng again,
Yours, as ever

Klaan Panyhara
