Dearest Prasidh,

We didn't hear ~~for~~ each-other quite a time but I am hoping you have been doing perfectly well since I saw you last.

Today I am writing to let you know that the noted English musicologist, Mr. Peter Crossley-Holland of London BBC, is coming to Bangkok early in morning of April 13 (that is, past midnight of April 12) for a stay of two days, on his way to Tokyo where he will attend the East-West Musical Encounter.

Of course, Mr. Crossley-Holland would like to hear and see as much as possible of Thai Music and Dance, besides getting a general view of musical and artistic things in your country. I feel I couldn't do better than to refer the matter to your attention. I would be very grateful to you for whatever you could do to make his stay as profitable as possible by showing him around and introducing him to interesting places and important personalities of your circle.

I advised Mr. Crossley-Holland to write you at which hotel he expects to stay, and would suggest that you may call him by phone in the morning of April 13 by 10 o'clock or so to make an appointment with him.

I didn't hear for ages from Prince Chakrabanduh. Please if you see him give him my best regards.

Thank you again, my dear friend, All my love as always to you and your dear family,

Yours, cordially

Klaus Pringsheim
