

way to do,

2.

I want to consult you concerning these instruments, my sister and I have been thinking that it might be better if we could sell them after the exhibition is over, since I know that your Music Dept. is one of the best centers for keeping such important instruments in the United States, would you think it over, and give me an idea what is the best way to do?