Dearest Madame:

Thank you so much for the cheque of $51.21 you kindly sent me through the bank last week. However, I would like to ask, wether was it from the Asia Society ? Would you please tell me later ? By all means, it was most gracious of you to have sent it, and I ofcourse, received it with warmest thanks.

I must tender you my apologies for have not written you quite atime, but Ladda and I always think of you and hope that you are quite well with your health, and very busy too, so
