My dear Shri Prasiddha,

Smt. Poornima Javeri and Shri Kiran Javeri will call on you with this note. They are shortly proceeding on an extensive tour of South East Asia and the Far East and are also expected to visit Bangkok during their sojourn.

Their father, Shri N.C. Javeri is one of my most intimate friends and is a great connoisseur and patron of Fine Arts and literature and particularly of Indian classical dancing. In fact, I had taken both Smt. Ladda and yourself to their residence on the sea-shore while you were in Bombay. His four daughters - Smt. Nayana, Smt. Ranjan and Miss Suvarna -- had performed Manipuri dancing at the Reception given by me in your honour and also at their residence when we visited them. I am sure you will recollect our visit to their home. I am, therefore, suggesting to Smt. Poornima and her brother, Shri Kiran to meet you while they are in Bangkok and I am sure that you both would enjoy meeting them. I am sure that you will accord to them your usual hospitality and warm courtesies and we shall be very grateful to you for any assistance you may render them while they are in Bangkok.

With kindest regards,

Yours sincerely,

Navnit Parekh
