Dear Prof. Sakakibara;

It's been quite some time since I have heard from you. I do hope that all has gone well with you and your family during this time. Last year I celebrated my eightieth birthday and my wife, Ladda, celebrated her sixth cycle birthday as well.

My son, Dr. Kulthorn Silapabanleng, will be in Tokyo for an official duty from 10-17 March 1993, and he intends to pay you a visit during this period. He also plans to visit Mrs. Sato and Mrs. Chitako, but he does not have their addresses. I therefore would appreciate very much if you could provide him with their telephone numbers so that he could contact them while staying in Tokyo.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank you and also like to convey my very best wishes to you and your wife and the rest of your family. I wish you all good health and prosperity always.

Sincerely yours,

Prasidh Silapabanleng
